

Family Law 101

Presented by the ISBA Young Lawyers Division Co-sponsored by the ISBA Family Law Section and ISBA Rural Practice Section

Live Webcast | Wednesday, January 15, 2025 | 2:00 – 3:05 p.m. | 1.0 hour MCLE credit

Do you want to help clients navigate emotionally complex situations while making a meaningful impact in their lives? Are you interested in being the voice for children in a divided family? If so, family law may be the ideal practice area for you, as it offers a unique opportunity to combine a compassionate approach while still being a zealous advocate for your client during what are often very challenging times. Don't miss this comprehensive introduction regarding the fundamentals of the family law practice! Listen as Genevieve and Olivia – who both exclusively practice family law in the Chicagoland area and are members of ISBA's Young Lawyers Division and Family Law Section Council – share their unique perspectives on practicing family law, discuss the daily issues that family law practitioners face, and stress important considerations every family law attorney must be aware of.
